

HOW TO START SIDE HUSTLE IN COLLEGE

First of all, you have to know about following things :

What is side hustle and why to do it ?

A side hustle is a short-term work, which you can do in your spare time , after your college hours or on holiday . It gives you freedom to work any time , you can work at night, over the weekend and even in the comfort of your home. Side hustle will turn your interest , skills , talent , creativity into a potential source of income . A side hustle is flexible , you are in control of your schedule. You can manage your study and side hustle in the way you want . You also get freedom to when and for how long you'll work , that is why it is perfect for students . Importantly, you can start side hustling with zero investment only thing you need is your spare time . So turning your spare into the money is like ' turning the waste into manure ' i.e. if you invest it in right way it will give you output in the best way it is possible .

You will be proud of yourself for spending your spare time in the best way . Your parents will be more proud on you than you are on yourself, that you are being independent . You can pay for your own expenses , you will be independent in the best possible manner .

When you start studying in college there are lot of expenses from the first day to the last day .You have to pay for things like books, pen , library fees , college fees , etc. in a greater manner with respect to school. If you are in other city for college then your expenses reach to the peak. Things like accomodation , food , daily using things , traveling, etc will add in your expenses . You depend on your father/mother for your own expenses . But side hustling will make you independent especially in terms of money. And you will be more confident about your skills. For ex. If you are great in designing things , when you will be paid for your design your confidence about your skill will be at peak than ever.

How Do I Start Side Hustle ?

Starting a side hustle in today's world is not much of a challenging especially for your generation as technology advancement has taken care of a lot of things. You can easily connect to the world with help of internet , you don't necessarily need to go for an interview for seeking a job , to listen you , to watch you or to tie yourself to one gig.

To get started on a good note, first you have to identify the skills you own that can translate into a side gig, ask yourself questions like, What am I good at ? Is there anything I can do that allows me to get paid during my day to day routine without affecting my study ?

Next, find a good platform that will connect you to your potential clients or audience. Once you're able to fix that ,then no one can stop you to become your own boss , you're essentially on the path to becoming your own boss .

What are the ways to start side hustle ?

There are many ways to start side hustling . Following are some of them in which you can invest your spare time to get paid.

In the field of teaching :

1. Teach Music Lessons

There is

them in some extracurriculars, or adults who missed out on their rock 'n' roll dreams when they were younger. If you can play an instrument and have patience with beginners, you can teach . It will be beneficial for you as well like you will learn some new lessons while teaching them , it will improve your teaching skill .

2. Become a tutor :

If you think you are clear enough to teach, you will be in online mode. You can reach to more students. The best platform to start is YouTube. You need a good camera and a microphone.

chemistry, etc. are teaching whether it is in online mode then you can reach to more students. YouTube is the best platform to start. You need a good camera and a microphone.

3. Become a drawing teacher :

If you have keen interest in drawing , you know basic things of drawing then , you can teach drawing to younger childrens , your colleagues or adults . Your confidence on drawing will hit the peak . Here also you can go for both modes whether it is online or offline . Your investement will be only pencil , colours ,etc.

In the field of buiseness :

1. Sell your sketches / paintings :

If you make excellent paintings / sketches , if you are interested in buiseness then you must go for this . In this simply you have to upload your painting / sketch photos with it's price tag on a appropriate website , if your work attarcts someone and he can pay the amount you want then your painting / sketch will be easily sold . You can also sell them at your local shops at good price .

2. Sell stock photos

Websites, book covers, brochures and just about anything else you can think of often use stock photos to spice up their product with images. College students who are avid photographers can sell their photos to websites , who will sell them and provide the student with a commission. Go all out and pose various photos using friends as models, or simply sell photos of random objects, scenes, and experiences.

3. Start your own Etsy buiseness :

College students who have a little extra time and some artistic talent can make a tidy little income with an Etsy business i.e.Easy to sell yourself. Simply start your profile, then sell your homemade greeting cards, baby girl bows, crocheted scarves, or just about anything else you can think of. Not so crafty? That's okay. Shop around for treasures at local garage and estate sales, then sell your most interesting finds on your Etsy page.

4. Graphic design :

Graphic design is the most common legit side hustle that has helped a lot of college students pay for their educational expenses. Companies and individuals all over the world that are ready to offer you anything from $25 to $200 to design business cards and Logos for them. You can also sell your services and designs on sites like Etsy, 99 Designs etc.

5. YouTube Video Blogger :

Video blogging is highly lucrative and therefore will make a good side hustle for college students who have a gift for video. It's estimated that video bloggers on YouTube get roughly $7.60 per 1,000 views of their videos. You get paid based on the advertisements displayed on your videos which means the more people that watch your videos, the more you get paid. You can make videos on various topics like travelling , college reviews, food recipes, etc.

Benefits of Side Hustle For College Students :

There are many reasons why college students are encouraged to take up a side hustle. Some of the reason include ;

- 1) If you choose a side hustle that you are passionate about, you can create new ideas that will benefit you and in turn earn you a higher pay.
- 2) There is joy when you receive a positive review from your clients; It boost your self-esteem and motivates you to put in more efforts.
- 3) As a student, a side hustle can help you develop or grow some amazing skills that can help improve your CV; With this, you stand a better chance of getting a great offer after graduation. Additionally, side Hustling Allows You to Reach Your Financial Goals Quicker

Challenges of Side Hustle for College Students :

- 1) Although side hustle offers a lot of benefits to college students, it also has some major drawbacks. Working a side hustle (or multiple side hustles) could conflict with your academic activities.

2) For instance, If you're loaded up with 12, 15, or even 18 credits in a semester, taking on even the smallest part-time gig might get in the way of class, studying, homework, and other important stuff you can't go without, like eating and sleeping.

Other disadvantages of college side hustle :

- Side hustle poses an unstable income. Unlike a traditional job, a side hustle probably won't provide you with a stable income.
- Missing out on social events.
- Neglecting your education.
- Spending more than you earn.

Conclusion :

Earning an income as a full-time college student can be very challenging especially when you have a huge academic workload. However, taking on a side hustle is a way to make money without interfering with your studies if you plan well. You can also pay down your student loan debt, save some money, or get some extra pocket cash. Take advantage of the flexible side hustles ideas highlighted in this article and watch yourself graduate debt-free from school. Also, don't ignore the career benefits that a side gig can bring you in the future.

Frequently Asked Question On Side Hustle Ideas for Students :

1. Will side hustle affect my school grades?

➔ If you know how to plan your schedule and create time for your studies, you will still maintain your performance.

2. Do I need to inform my professor before taking up a side hustle.

➔ You don't need anybody's permission to take up aside hustle.

3. Is there any side hustle that allows one to work remotely?

➔ Side hustle like Graphic design, Translating, and blogging allows people to work at the comfort of their home.